

Boundary Training Workshop

Increase awareness of the need for healthy and appropriate boundaries in relationships

Receive suggestions for developing appropriate boundaries and necessary self-care strategies

Have an opportunity to interact with others in the Presbytery

Nothing But the Cross

Live creatively, friends. If someone falls into sin, forgivingly restore him, saving your critical comments for yourself. You might be needing forgiveness before the day's out. Stoop down and reach out to those who are oppressed. Share their burdens, and so complete Christ's law. If you think you are too good for that, you are badly deceived.

Make a careful exploration of who you are and the work you have been given, and then sink yourself into that. Don't be impressed with yourself. Don't compare yourself with others. Each of you must take responsibility for doing the creative best you can with your own life.

Be very sure now, you who have been trained to a self-sufficient maturity, that you enter into a generous common life with those who have trained you, sharing all the good things that you have and experience. Galatians 6:1-6 The Message

Sponsored by the Commission on Ministry

FOR TEACHING ELDERS,
CERTIFIED CHRISTIAN
EDUCATORS, AND COMMISSIONED RULING ELDERS

in the Presbytery of Carlisle

Particulars

When applied to human relationships, the concept of boundaries concerns the places where the various threads of our lives intersect, individually and collectively. The Boundaries in Professional Relationships workshop is intended to help participants make those intersections in life-giving. In part this workshop is being provided as a response to ethical, legal and liability concerns for congregations, sessions, clergy and the presbytery. More importantly, this workshop will help to promote the creation and maintenance of emotionally and spiritually healthy, as well as, faithful leaders in congregations.
