Numerous churches support: Juniata Food Bank; giving trees at Christmas to fill needs of children and adults in their communities; provide children’s backpacks, lunches, clothes and snacks for children during the school year and lunch programs during the summer at local playground locations; local dinners, craft fairs, etc. and give the proceeds to local non-profits in their communities; mission weeks where church members work at various community projects such as cleaning up parks, painting and cleaning in non-profits buildings, construction projects to meet community needs, tutoring and mentoring youth; sponsoring community dinners or lunches on a monthly or annual basis; using the last Sunday of the month as “noisy” Sunday’s and collecting money used for mission.

If you need further ideas for mission projects for your congregation, please look at the Carlisle Presbytery Mission Yearbook online at the Presbytery website. Mission is your congregation’s “being church” to the outside world.
