Workshops (9 - 10:15 AM)

1) Developing A Christian Worldview

Rev. Bill Beck, leading

Discover what a relevant and distinctively Christian world view is.

2) Book Study: *Always with us: What

Jesus really said about the poor - Join us whether you've read the book or want to read it.

Copies will be available for purchase.

3) Enneagram - refers to the nine different types or styles, each representing a worldview and archetype, that resonates with the way people think, feel and act in relation to the world, others and themselves.

Martha Spong, leading

4) Keeping Our Churches Safe and Secure

Tim Milletics, a Crisis Management & Business Continuity Planner, has worked for 29 years in risk management. He has been working with the Pine Street Presbyterian Church to assess building risks and strengthen church security. Come to learn and ask questions.

Throughout the event Hearts and Minds Bookstore will have a variety of books for sale focusing on many topics as well as those from today's workshops and labs. The display will include selections for all ages.

Learning Lab A

5. Jessica Tate—discussion on her keynote topic, Where is the Church Going? (will be repeated in Learning Lab B)

6. Transforming Ministry for Older Adults

As members age their needs change. How can ministry transform to meet these changes? What resources are available for ministry with seniors? Rachel Schwab, leading

7. Money Matters: A Stewardship Conversation - Stewardship is a framework for living. All of us are stewards with differing gifts, and we have oversight of different resources and assets. Ideas will be shared to help you have a stewardship conversation in your church.

8. Church Response to Hate Group Activity

Recently, communities have experienced an increase in the activities of hate groups. How should churches respond? Ann Van Dyke, leading

9. Yoga and Spirituality - Take a moment out of a hectic season by exploring the spirituality of yoga. Use this time to learn and be rejuvenated.

Learning Lab B (1:15 - 2 PM)

5. Jessica Tate—discussion on her keynote topic, Where is the Church Going?
