Lisle Gwynn Garrity is a PC (USA) pastor who leads retreats and serves as artist-in-residence with churches across the nation. She is the founder and creative director of a collaborative arts ministry providing multimedia resources for worshiping communities. She approaches her work as an artist primarily through the lenses of pastor and theologian. Residing in Black Mountain, North Carolina, with her husband and two wiggly pups, she has a deep love for exploring mountains, creative opportunities of all kinds, and new ways to be church. Her work and writings have been featured in Reformed Worship, Call to Worship, NEXT Church, and Presbyterians Today. Visit: sanctifiedart.org or lislegwynngarrity.com.

This unique Artist-in-Residence program is funded by Second, Derry, and Mechanicsburg Churches along with the Presbytery of Carlisle.
