

Call to a A Special Meeting of The Presbytery of Carlisle

Moderator Cheryl Betts has called a special meeting of the Presbytery, via Zoom, for Tuesday, July 7, 2020 at noon. The primary purpose of the meeting is to examine candidate Andrew Hostetter for ordination to a call at Centre Presbyterian Church of Loysville. The presbytery will also have the opportunity to elect readers of Standard Ordination exams and will elect a new member to the presbytery's Nominating Committee. The docket and meeting materials are found here

In accordance with our presbytery's practice of hearing a sermon from candidates who are examined for ordination, the Coordinating Council asked Andrew Hostetter to video-record a sermon, which is found here

In the interest of time, as we meet via Zoom, Andrew's sermon will not be viewed 'live' during the presbytery meeting. Instead, we invite ministers and elder commissioners to listen to the sermon prior to the meeting. During the presbytery meeting, we will hear Andrew's Statement of Faith and presbyters will be invited to examine him on "his Christian faith and views in theology, the Sacraments, and the government of this church." (G-3.0306).

Please note: For the health and safety of all, the presbytery will not gather in person. However, this is an official meeting of the presbytery, and thus will require a quorum of minister and elder commissioners. We will meet by Zoom and pre-registration will be required. Please use this link to register. All who register will receive the Zoom invitation information.
