

Call of the Stated Meeting of The Presbytery of Carlisle

*“My heart shall sing of the day you bring. Let the fires of your justice burn.
Wipe away all tears, for the dawn draws near, and the world is about to turn.”*
-Canticle of the Turning

The Presbytery of Carlisle will meet Tuesday, December 1, 2020 beginning at 7:00 p.m. We will meet on Zoom, for the health and safety of all.

Your pre-registration is required. Please use this link to register. All who register will receive the Zoom invitation information. We will also post the Zoom link to the presbytery meetings page of the web-site, on the day of the meeting.

We gather as people of gratitude. We gather as people of hope. We gather as those who dream. Although we walk in the darkness of a global pandemic, we have seen a great light. The love of God sustains us and we walk in the light of the promised coming of Christ. In this confidence, we dare to dream and to declare the wondrous things Christ brings to the ones who wait. Could the world be about to turn?

As we wait, we remain strongly connected in bonds of relationship and mission. Our presbytery meeting will focus on a few key elements in our life together:

- Action on the proposed 2021 Presbytery Budget
- Action to Elect Officers and Committee Members
- Reflections from the Interim Executive Presbyter

As those who Dream...we will conclude in worship, centered in the Light that has come and is coming into our lives, in Jesus Christ. Where have you found light lately? Where do you need light right now? Worship will include an offering to benefit our partners in Honduras. Your generous gifts will bring hope and help to our siblings in Christ, recently struck by hurricanes Eta and Iota, still struggling with the coronavirus pandemic, and already vulnerable in on-going conditions of poverty. You may use the Give Now button on our web-site, download the GivePlus+App to your cell phone or make checks payable to The Presbytery of Carlisle and mailed to 2601 N. Front St., Harrisburg PA 17110.
