God, Our Nation Feels the Loss

PILOT 7.7.7.7.7 (“Jesus, Savior, Pilot Me”)

God, our nation feels the loss
as our children pay the cost for the violence we accept,
for the silence we have kept.
Rachel weeps for children gone;
God of love, this can’t go on!

Jesus, Lord, we hear you say,
“Don’t turn little ones away!”
May we build a kinder land where our children understand:
Every child here matters more that the guns we clamor for.

Holy Spirit, wind and flame,
send us out in Jesus’ name.
May we shout and say, “Enough!”
May we build a world of love—till the sounds of weapons cease, till our young can grow in peace.

Tune: John Edgar Gould, 1871.

Hymn Note from the Hymn Writer : See the reference to the Slaughter of the Innocents: “A voice was heard in Ramah, wailing and loud lamentation, Rachel weeping for her children; she refused to be consoled, because they are no more” (Matthew 2:18). This hymn was written in remembrance of the beloved children of God who died in the school shooting at Robb Elementary School in Uvalde, Texas. Many of us, as individuals, do not accept violence, keep silence, or clamor for guns. Yet, as a nation, we do these things, and as a nation, we need to repent; we need to turn around and live a different way. All of us are called to do more than sing and pray; please work for gun safety laws in your community and state.

If We Just Talk of Thoughts and Prayers

Tune: O WALY WALY 8.8.8.8

Hymn text by Carolyn Winfrey Gillette

All rights reserved. Church use granted.

If we just talk of thoughts and prayers
And don't live out a faith that dares,
And don't take on the ways of death,
Our thoughts and prayers are fleeting breath.

If we just dream of what could be
And do not build community,
And do not seek to change our ways,
Our dreams of change are false displays.

If we just sing of doing good
And don't walk through our neighborhood
To learn its hope, to ease its pain,
Our talk of good is simply vain.

God, may our prayers and dreams and songs
Lead to a faith that takes on wrongs —
That works for peace and justice, too.
Then will our prayers bring joy to you.

Prayers for and by Students

These prayers were written by students in the First Presbyterian Church of Yorktown, NY Middle and High School Youth Groups on the one year memorial of the Parkland High School shooting. We thank the adult leaders who worked with these students: Timothy Wotring, Jen Burns, Stephen Thompson, Christian Pisco and Rev. Margery Rossi. We also thank Rev. Tami Seidel and Stephanie Hare, for permission to distribute these prayers throughout the denomination.

Prayer of Confession #1

Gracious God,
You are generous in forgiveness
You are with us, lovingly guiding us
You encourage us to be our best

We confess that we have not done our best in protecting our children.
Lockdowns in school put students in a negative, stressed, and pressured environment;
they distract them from their education and goals.
Gun laws could improve a lot,
yet lawmakers seem more concerned with money than people's lives.
Mental Health, too, is not being addressed in schools;
students are suffering in silence.

Yet, you, O God, call us to do right and create a world at peace.

To do so:

We should create a culture where peers can talk to each other without fear of being judged.
Group discussions should be the norm, and not the exception.
Teachers should also be trained in facilitating such conversations.
Schools should have more accessible therapists;
ones who make the first move in talking with students;
ones who are authentic and genuine.
We should educate others on how guns should not be used for clout and the danger of these weapons.

May we strive to live without fear and strife.
God, grant us a good and fresh start. Amen.

- Joshua, Grade 6; Lionel, Grade 9; Marina, Grade 9; Tiffany, Grade 11

Prayer of Confession #2

Almighty God,
We confess that we can't solve the problem of gun violence, that we started,
and we aren't ready for anything that is to come.
All of our "solutions" are just avoiding the real problem.
We ask for forgiveness, for instead of finding solutions for gun violence, we practice non-effective lockdown drills.
This is not good enough and it keeps happening.
We hope that we can find permanent solutions to stop gun violence, such as having a better understanding of mental illnesses;
figuring out where the guns are going,
who has them and what they plan to do with them.
We hope we can convince people to stop using guns for violence. Amen.

-Anthony, Grade 9; Brynne, Grade 7; Jonathan, Grade 9; Kithara, Grade 6

Psalm of Lament

Dear God,

Students everywhere are suffering

Bullets are raining down on them and nothing is changing.

We have faith that through your work in the world, things will get better.

We have faith that you will end the cycle of gun violence.

Please help our leaders to create sensible gun laws and bring safety into our hallways and classrooms.

We praise you in our everyday lives and give thanks for your never ending love.

-Ben, Grade 9; Emma, Grade 9; Ethan, Grade 10; Julia, Grade 7

Litany of Remembrance and Advocacy

Let us remember our fellow students who have fallen to people with malcontent in their hearts and guns in their hands.

We will stand up against gun violence.

Let us remember the teachers, school administrators and others who have died trying to keep kids safe.

We will stand up against gun violence.

Let us remember the innocent people who die every day from needless gun violence.

We will stand up against gun violence.

Let our students go to school without fear of violence or lockdown drills that don't solve anything.

We will stand up against gun violence.

Let us take a stand and get guns out of the hands of people who could abuse them.

We will stand up against gun violence.

Let us take action against racism,

a primary cause of unreasonable police shootings of young people of color.

We will stand up against gun violence.

Let us take real action and stand behind our "thoughts and prayers" instead of speaking empty words. Let this be a call to all people in the community to work for a new era of gun laws.

We will stand up against gun violence.

-Faith, Grade 9; Luke, Grade 11; Natalie, Grade 12; Sam, Grade 7

Prayer Flags

Materials needed: rope, fabric squares about 5 x 7 in different colors, markers or pens and some way to clip, sew or glue the flags to the rope. Participants can write or draw a message or prayer for the well-being and safety of students or others.

Display the prayer flag.

After an incident of gun violence in America, make prayer flags and send them to the Presbyterian Church or Presbytery office nearest the attack, inviting them to hang the flags outside their building as a sign of our mutual grief and support.

Opening Prayer

Gracious God,
Inspire us with the gift of shalom,
the gift of wholeness and the promise of your presence.
Give us wisdom to seek nonviolence
as an answer to the violence of our lives and world.
Give us courage to seek wholeness in a fractured and divided world,
to find reconciliation rather than revenge, to abandon the instruments of violence and death and entrust our lives, our homes and our families to you.
May your presence fill us and others with the thirst for unity, wholeness, and the desire to see all people valued as created in your image.
May we and others receive your Shalom that we might be faithful instruments of your love. Amen.

Hymn: God of Mercy A Hymn Lamenting Gun Violence

Scripture Reading

Psalm 46

God is our refuge and our strength, who from of old has helped us in our distress.
Therefore we fear nothing –
even if the earth should open up in front of us and mountains plunge into the depths of the sea, even if the earth's waters rage and foam and the mountains tumble with its heaving.

There's a river whose streams gladden the city of God,
the holy dwelling of the Most High.
God is in its midst, it will never fall –
God will help it at daybreak.
Though nations are in turmoil and empires crumble,

God's voice resounds, and it melts the earth.

The God of Hosts is with us –
our stronghold is the God of Israel!

Come, see what Yahweh has done –
God makes the earth bounteous!
God has put an end to war,
from one end of the earth to the other,
breaking bows, splintering spears,
and setting chariots on fire.
“Be still, and know that I am God!
I will be exalted among the nations;
I will be exalted upon the earth.”

The God of Hosts is with us –
our stronghold is the God of Israel!

Hymn: Amazing Grace

We Remember...

Time of Reflection and Remembrance

During this time, you may offer a brief reflection or remembrance.

Litany of Remembrance

Leader 1: Let us remember all who have been harmed by violence.

We acknowledge the strength of those who survived and of those still struggling to heal.

For their sake and for ours, we commit ourselves to building each other up and to healing – together.

Leader 2: Let us remember the families and loved ones of those who have died from gun violence.

We acknowledge their pain and their deep grief.

*They too, are part of our community,
and need our love and help towards healing.*

Leader 3: Let us remember the perpetrators,
and the families of those who commit violence.

We acknowledge that their lives, too, are devastated and their hopes dashed.

For their sake and for ours, we remember that pain goes in many directions from each act of violence.

All: We will stand up to violence.

We stand together expressing our unity,
our connection to each other and to the divine;
our hope for healing and for transformation.

Let the Spirit of our Creator move through us.

Help us to transform and heal our communities.

And let us begin by transforming ourselves. Amen.

We Hope...

Scripture Reading

Matthew 5:1-12

When Jesus saw the crowds, he went up on the mountainside, and after he sat down and the disciples had gathered around, Jesus began to teach them. He said:

Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted.

Blessed are the meek, for they will inherit the earth.

Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be filled.

Blessed are the merciful, for they will be shown mercy.

Blessed are the pure in heart, for they will see God.

Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God.

Blessed are those who are persecuted because of righteousness, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Blessed are you when people insult you, persecute you and falsely say all kinds of evil against you because of me.

Rejoice and be glad, because great is your reward in heaven,

for in the same way they persecuted the prophets who were before you.

We Pray...

Closing Prayer

Let us be at peace with our bodies and our minds.

Let us return to ourselves and become wholly ourselves.

Let us be aware of the source of being,
common to us all and to all living things.

Evoking the presence of the Great Compassion, let us fill our hearts with our own compassion – towards ourselves and towards all living beings.

Let us pray that we ourselves cease to be the cause of suffering to each other. With humility, with awareness of the existence of life, and of the sufferings that are going on around us,
let us practice the establishment of peace in our hearts and on earth.

Action Suggestions A Kairos Moment for Change

On what else do over 90% of Americans agree? Nonetheless, passing reasonable steps to prevent gun violence is difficult and will require American citizens to take sustained action in face of unrelenting opposition by the gun lobby/NRA. As former Rep. Gabby Giffords put it before the US Congress:; “Stopping gun violence takes courage, the courage to do what’s right, the courage of new ideas. Now is the time to come together, be responsible — Democrats, Republicans, everyone. We must never stop fighting. Fight, fight, fight. Be bold, be courageous. The nation’s counting on you.

1. Find Local Actions Near You: www.everytown.org/act

Everytown for Gun Safety is the national organization that sponsors Students Demand Action and Moms Demand Action, with chapters in all 50 states. To be contacted by someone from Moms Demand Action for how to take action text "READY" to 644-33

2. Memorial for the Lost – This idea involves a public display of personal items that symbolize gun victims, such as pairs of shoes for each victim or a t-shirt with names of victims. You can do this for a single incident or for all victims in your city/state over a period of time. Contact your local media and officials.

3. Learn about Gun Violence Proposals coming to the PCUSA General Assembly in June/July 2022. Share them with your presbytery’s GA commissioners. For updates, join the new Facebook community: Presbys following GA225

4. Learn about the new Guns to Gardens movement, a form of direct action to show that the American people are ready for change and that we will take the initiative to start it by turning unwanted guns into garden tools. See www.presbypeacefellowship.org/gun-violence

5. HR 8 The Bipartisan Background Checks Act of 2019 –

This is the legislation that basketball Coach Steve Kerr called for in his press conference hours after the Uvalde, Texas shooting. It passed the US House of Representatives and has been stalled by lack of US Senate action. It calls for Background Checks on all gun sales, including gun shows and on-line. Reach out to your Senators to call for action now on HR 8 and other reasonable steps to prevent gun violence.

Do a special Offering of Letters Service to support Background Checks or incorporate letters/postcards into other worship and action. See the Gun Violence Prevention Congregational Toolkit for a worship service that includes an Offering of Letters to your elected officials as an act of faithfulness.

8. Use Social Media

Use Social Media to call out our officials and urge them to get background checks passed. In addition to letters, cards, visits and phone calls, here are some sample tweets, Instagram and Facebook posts. Feel free to make them your own. Also, these work best with personal pictures.

Samples: I'm a resident of _____(district/state) and I want this Congress to take action on gun violence in America! I just told my Senators and Representative to update Background Checks.

It's past time for Congress to Update Background Checks! I just sent my Senators an email urging them to support legislation that would strengthen background checks on gun sales. Please raise your voice too.
