

V. Standing Rules for the Entities of the Presbytery of Carlisle Administration Committee

Mission Statement: To support the effective functioning of the Presbytery of Carlisle in the areas of finance, personnel, and property.

Membership: It shall ordinarily consist of 6 – 9 members, in three classes, seeking balance among ministers, ruling elders and trustees. Members of the Administration Committee shall serve concurrently as trustees in accordance with the Charter of the Corporation. The executive presbyter, who serves as the primary presbytery staff resource person, and the treasurer of presbytery shall be ex-officio members of the committee with voice but without vote. The committee will meet prior to each stated meeting of the presbytery, as needed.

Quorum: The quorum for meetings shall be a majority of the membership.

Tasks:

In the role of Trustee, the Administration Committee shall:

1. Receive gifts and bequests to the presbytery and hold in trust the properties and funds of the presbytery in the manner directed by the presbytery. Financial management and investment policies and procedures relating to the presbytery shall require approval by the committee and shall be reported to the presbytery.
2. Receive requests submitted to the committee by particular churches for permission to sell, lease, or mortgage any real property. It shall carefully examine the financial wisdom of all such actions and ascertain the plans and probability of success for retiring such requested indebtedness in a reasonable period of time. Such requests shall be submitted at least one month prior to the presbytery meeting at which action is requested. Recommendations on these requests will be forwarded to the presbytery by the Administration Committee. When appropriate, it shall have the authority to act on behalf of the presbytery to approve or disapprove requests involving amounts of less than $500,000.
3. Receive the reports that all churches having any indebtedness shall submit to the Administration Committee annually in January with an account of the amounts paid upon such indebtedness during the preceding year. A compilation of these reports shall be submitted to the presbytery, ordinarily at its May stated meeting together with an account of the properties to which the presbytery holds title.

In the area of Finance, the Administration Committee shall:

4. Prepare a proposed annual Operating Budget which the presbytery shall consider, ordinarily at the December stated meeting of the presbytery. The budget process will be interpreted to the presbytery and will include obtaining budget requests from the Coordinating Council and all committees of the presbytery. All reimbursement items listed in “The Fee and Reimbursement Schedule” of the Leadership Handbook will be reviewed periodically. The Administration Committee shall recommend to the presbytery any changes in the amounts for reimbursement, as part of the budget process.
5. Provide for the financial management of presbytery funds, monitor the income and expenditures of the Operating Budget and shall ensure that timely financial information, including the results of a full annual financial review of all books and records pertaining to finances, is reported to the presbytery (Book of Order). All receipts, disbursements and transfers of funds within the investment and operating accounts shall be executed in accordance with the presbytery's "Policy and Procedures for Financial Management and Accounting."

6. Monitor investments and shall make decisions relating to the investment of presbytery funds in accordance with investment policies and procedures the committee has established and report decisions to the presbytery.

In the area of Personnel, the Administration Committee shall:

7. Provide for the oversight and implementation of personnel policies relating to all presbytery staff and persons employed by the presbytery. This oversight and implementation shall include: recommending changes in personnel policies to the presbytery, annually reviewing position descriptions, performance, compensation and continuing education of staff, and recommending salary changes to the presbytery through the budget process. The committee will provide counsel to the executive presbyter in her/his role as head of staff.
8. Maintain adequate confidential personnel files for each employee.

In the area of Management, the Administration Committee shall:

9. Provide for the maintenance, upkeep and insurance of the presbytery office facilities and any other property owned by the presbytery.
10. Provide advice and assistance to sessions, presbytery staff and committees regarding requirements and procedures for securing property and liability insurance and receive the reports that all churches shall submit to the committee annually with an account of the current value of church properties and the amounts of property and liability insurance which the church carries. Receipt of this information shall be reported to the presbytery annually, ordinarily at its May stated meeting.
11. Provide advice and assistance upon request to sessions, the presbytery staff and committees, regarding requirements and procedures for engagement of legal counsel.
12. Designate an appropriate repository for bonds and valuable papers such as deeds, etc., with those persons having access to be designated by the Administration Committee.
13. Retain legal counsel as deemed necessary.
14. A financial institution(s) determined by the presbytery shall be the depository for all presbytery funds under a fiduciary relationship as set forth in an Agreement of Trust between the Presbytery of Carlisle and the designated financial institution(s). From time to time the stated clerk shall certify to the financial institution(s) the names and signatures of those individuals authorized to transfer funds or sign checks.
15. Oversee the work of Lend-A-Hand and approve single item purchases over $5000.00.

Basic characteristics of members:

1. Commitment to the Presbyterian expression and mission of the Church of Jesus Christ.
2. Experience in serving the church at the congregational level.
3. Ability to understand the needs of staff and to offer support to staff in their ministries.

4. Skill in understanding financial matters, recognizing that the church is not a business even though it values and employs sound business practices.
5. Interest in enhancing the ministries of congregations through the mission and program resources of the presbytery.
6. Organizational skills, including the gift of timely follow-up on decisions.

Adopted 6/25/2002, amended 1/22/2008, amended 1/27/2009, amended 2/26/2013, amended by action of the presbytery 12/6/2023

Camp Krislund Committee

Mission Statement: “To provide persons of every age with the opportunities to know Jesus Christ as Savior and respond to Him as Lord through nurture in the Christian faith and life based on Holy Scripture, individual and group discoveries and experiences over a continuous period of time, under the guidance of Christian men and women and in dependence upon the Holy Spirit. ” (from the Krislund Camp & Conference Joint Committee report to the three presbyteries for study and action in 1994)

Membership: It shall consist of six members, ministers and lay persons. These six committee members are our presbytery’s representatives to the Joint Camp and Conference Committee. The presbytery staff contact person is the executive presbyter.

Tasks:

1. To continue a Spirit-filled summer camp program for children and youth.
2. To maintain and improve the facilities for our camp program.
3. To offer events for children, youth, families, adults and older adults.
4. To offer off-season programming as well as hosting groups.
5. To maintain financial viability and to pursue a development program.

Basic characteristics of members:

1. Gifts and skills in teaching and programming for persons of all ages and reaching out with the love and gospel of Christ.
2. A broad commitment to Christian stewardship of the earth.
3. The ability to work well with a sizeable committee of the whole and abilities to be productive in subcommittee work.
4. The ability to be present for a total of five to six hours per month minimum for on-site meetings at the camp.
5. The ability to interpret the camp’s mission and ministry to church groups and individuals of all ages.
6. Skills in the analysis of financial statements.
7. Skills in personnel management and a sensitivity to the needs and circumstances of employees.
8. An affirmative approach to “connectional” church relationships, since the camp relates to local churches, three presbyteries, the Synod of the Trinity and the General Assembly of the PCUSA.

Adopted 6/25/2002

Church and Society

Mission Statement: To educate the presbytery and its member congregations so that they may address and affect contemporary social issues and concerns with the love, justice and peace of Jesus Christ.

Membership: It shall consist of six (6) members, two or three ministers and the rest being active church members. The primary presbytery staff resource person is the executive presbyter, who serves as an ex-officio member with voice, but without vote.

Tasks:

1. Identify matters of social concern from:
 - a. our communities,

Commission on Ministry (COM)

Introduction

The Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) adopted a new Form of Government (effective July 2011) which substantially reorders the structures of individual presbyteries. The new Form of Government requires presbyteries to develop mechanisms that address the means whereby a presbytery will receive and oversee teaching elder members.

Background

While the new Form of Government does not name the entity whereby presbyteries oversee the process for receiving and overseeing teaching elder members, it does explicitly indicate that a presbytery “may delegate its authority to designated entities within the presbytery.” (new Form of Government, G-3.0307) To that end, this policy sets forth the specifics for the designated entity which will oversee these functions.

Statement of Purpose

The purpose of this policy is to name and identify the entity within the Presbytery of Carlisle with the responsibility and authority to receive, evaluate and act upon those teaching elders who wish to become members of the Presbytery of Carlisle and to support congregations.

Implementation

1. The Name of the Entity

The entity designated within the Presbytery of Carlisle with responsibility and authority is the Commission on Ministry.

2. Membership

The members of the Commission on Ministry shall continue in place until replaced by the Presbytery of Carlisle. The number and composition of the Commission on Ministry is eighteen members, including the chair, in equal numbers of teaching elders (ministers) and ruling elders. Additionally, the executive presbyter, who serves as the primary staff resource person, and the stated clerk shall be ex-officio members with voice but without vote.

3. Meetings

The Commission on Ministry shall meet monthly. If there is no pressing business, the chair of the Commission on Ministry may cancel a particular month’s meeting.

4. Quorum

A simple majority of members elected shall constitute a quorum.

Duties

Delegated Authority

The Form of Government specifically identifies those tasks which may be delegated to an entity within the presbytery. (G 3.0307) Of those functions, the following are those that the Commission on Ministry is responsible to carry out and/ or oversee:

M receive and oversee teaching elder members,

M approve calls for pastoral services,

M approve invitations for temporary pastoral services,

M support congregations without pastors,

M dissolve relationships between pastors and congregations,

M dismiss members,

M uphold close relationships with both member congregations and teaching elders.

To facilitate the above identified tasks, the Commission on Ministry will have the authority to act on behalf of presbytery in the following ways:

- a. Examine and approve teaching elders for membership in the presbytery;
- b. Review and approve calls issued by congregations for installed pastoral relationships;
- c. Examine and approve teaching elders for service beyond the jurisdiction of the church;
- d. Dissolve the pastoral relationship in cases where the congregation and pastor concur;
- e. Inquire into reported difficulties in a congregation;
- f. Appoint moderators for sessions of churches as necessary;
- g. Validate ministries for teaching elders laboring beyond the jurisdiction of the church;
- h. Approve ministers as honorably retired, or member-at-large.
- i. Dismiss members to other presbyteries
- j. Dismiss members to other denominations

For all actions carried out as a result of these delegated authorities, COM must report any such action to the presbytery at its next regular meeting.

Related Duties

To ensure the smooth functioning of congregations and pastoral relations, the Commission on Ministry shall also have the authority to carry out the following tasks:

- a. Recommend to the Presbytery annually for action any change in minimum terms of call;
- b. Review annually the compensation and benefit package of all installed pastoral relationships within the Presbytery to determine that they meet the Presbytery's minimum terms of call;
- c. Approve and communicate the rate for all pulpit supply and appointed moderators of sessions.
- d. Provide support and guidance for sessions and certified Christian educators in the employment process, including:
- e. Encourage certified Christian educators to complete and place on file with the Committee on Ministry the Christian Educator Information form;
- f. Review annually minimum compensation and benefit requirements for full-time certified Christian educators and recommend any changes to Presbytery for approval;
- g. Encourage sessions to notify COM when sessions are considering dissolving the relationship with certified Christian educators, notifying COM before any action takes place on such dissolution.
- h. Provide support for certified Christian educators in the certification process and encourage employing sessions to make continuing education funds and time available to Christian educators seeking certification.
- i. Develop and maintain appropriate policies pertinent to the conduct of teaching elders and certified Christian educators, for example the Ethics policy or the Sexual Misconduct policy.
- j. Respond to the pastoral needs of teaching elders and certified Christian educators.
- k. Generate commissions to ordain and/or install teaching elders, and report the completion of such work to the presbytery.

Continuation of Existing COM Policies

All policies and guidelines in place within the Presbytery of Carlisle adopted before July 10, 2011 that applies to the functioning of the Commission on Ministry shall remain in place until they are replaced by action of the Commission on Ministry or the Presbytery of Carlisle.

Adopted 6/25/2002, amended 1/13/2007, Amended by Presbytery 11/15/2011, Amended by Presbytery 5/24/2016

 - e. Share expenses for career counseling, psychological exams, and travel for annual consultations.
 - f. Provide helpful information and consultation annually.
5. Provide reports and recommendations on status of inquirers/candidates to presbytery.
6. Review the Ethics Policy and the Sexual Misconduct Policy annually with all candidates.
7. With the authority of the presbytery, certify candidates as ready for examination for ordination, pending a call, with the provision that all such actions be reported to the next stated meeting of the presbytery.
8. Provide support to educators who are in the process of certification as follows:
 - a. Keep a record of those in the process that would include name, place of employment, copy of the plan for study as approved by the Certification Council, names of those serving on the reference group, yearly progress report, notation of when exam process begins, report from the reference group after exam has been approved by it, and copy of notification that certification has been approved.
 - b. Appoint a person from the committee to serve on the reference group, that person to be determined by the makeup of the reference group, i.e. laity or clergy to provide a balance to the reference group.
 - c. Coordinate presentation of the certificate at a presbytery meeting with the educator, his or her advisor and the preparation committee.
 - d. Keep current with requirements for certification as they change.
 - e. Encourage educators to seek certification by providing scholarship money for course work or continuing education to assist in meeting the requirements for certification.

Basic characteristics of members:

1. Can articulate one's own sense of call to ministry as an elder or minister.
2. Familiarity with educational process (secular or religious).
3. Ability to act as a mentor by listening and seeking resources.
4. Interest in the inquirer/candidate process.

Adopted 6/25/2002

Committee on Representation

Mission Statement: To serve both as an advocate for the representation of racial ethnic members, women, different age groups, and persons with disabilities, and as a continuing resource to the presbytery in these areas.

Membership: It shall consist of six people and conform to the Book of Order G-9.0105a. The presbytery staff contact person is the executive presbyter.

Tasks:

1. Consult with the Nominating Committee, advising of any need for nominations in particular categories needing increased representation.
2. Annually inform the presbytery of its progress toward fair representation of racial ethnic members, women, different age groups, and persons with disabilities.
3. Recommend to presbytery any corrective action.
4. Consult with racial ethnic members, sessions, and nominating committees of churches of the presbytery to determine achievable representation.
5. In accordance with the principles of participation and representation (Book of Order G-4.0403) and conformity with a church-wide plan for equal employment opportunity (Book of Order G-13.0201b), advise the presbytery on the employment of personnel.

Adopted 6/25/2002

Coordinating Council

Mission Statement: The Coordinating Council is the planning and visionary group of the presbytery that focuses on listening and responding to the needs of congregations.

Membership: It shall consist of thirteen people, who have an awareness of the presbytery and the ability to look at the whole of the presbytery's life and programs. The council shall consist of four designated members who are: the moderator, vice-moderator, the most recent past moderator of the presbytery, the executive presbyter, and nine additional at-large members (Teaching Elders and Ruling Elders in as nearly equal numbers as possible). The executive presbyter will moderate the council, following the model of the local session. The stated clerk of the presbytery shall serve as the secretary of the council with voice, but without vote. The treasurer of the presbytery will be an ex-officio member with voice, but without vote.

Primary Tasks:

1. Manage the design and plans of the presbytery, adhering to the mission statement and the three guiding principles of the presbytery;
2. Develop strategies for regularly and effectively communicating presbytery's vision and mission to the congregations;
3. Appoint task forces, ad hoc committees and teams as necessary to carry out presbytery decisions, policies and strategies (such as presbytery-wide ministry initiatives). Whenever appropriate, the Coordinating Council may use the Nominating Committee to assist in recruiting members for the aforementioned task forces, ad hoc committees and teams.
4. Communicate with congregations and offer a variety of networking opportunities to address needs, in coordination with the Strengthening our Congregations Committee.
