CPM Description in Standing Rules

Committee on Preparation for Ministry

Mission Statement: To provide support to individuals in their discernment of a call to ministerial leadership in accordance with the Book of Order. This includes those seeking ordination as a minister of the Word and Sacrament, ruling elders seeking to be commissioned to pastoral service, and Christian Educators seeking certification.

Membership: It shall consist of nine to twelve members, in equal numbers of ministers and elders where possible.

The primary presbytery staff resource person is the stated clerk, who serves as an ex-officio member with voice but without vote.

Quorum: The quorum for meetings shall be a majority of the membership.

Tasks:

1. Provide educational opportunities for congregations and individuals to help identify individuals whose gifts are appropriate for ministry.
2. Provide information and consultation for congregations and individuals about the call to ministry process.
3. Provide congregations with education and support in their responsibilities for inquirers/candidates.
4. Provide support to inquirers/candidates through the following:
 - a. Provide information on the steps of the process.
 - b. Perform annual consultations to assess preparation, progress, and to provide consultation on courses and fieldwork.
 - c. Assign a committee liaison who will communicate regularly with the inquirer/candidate, provide counsel and report status/questions/concerns to the committee.
 - d. Provide resources on financial aid and counseling.
 - e. Share expenses for career counseling, psychological evaluations, and travel for annual consultations.
5. Provide reports and recommendations on the status of inquirers/candidates to the presbytery.
6. Review the Ethics Policy and the Sexual Misconduct Policy annually with all candidates.
7. With the authority of the presbytery, certify candidates as ready for examination for ordination, pending a call, with the provision that all such actions be reported to the next stated meeting of the presbytery.
8. Provide support to Ruling Elders seeking to be commissioned to pastoral service.
 - a. Provide information on the steps of the process.
 - b. Review applications to enter the CRE program and along with COM and the Presbytery Leader for Governance and Congregational Leadership identify a process specific to each CRE in training.
 - c. Perform annual consultations to assess preparation, progress, and to provide consultation on courses and fieldwork.
 - d. Assign a committee liaison who will communicate regularly with the CRE in training, provide counsel and report status/questions/concerns to the committee.
